I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not remain in me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers; such branches are picked up, thrown into the fire and burned. If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be given you. This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples.
John 15:5-8

MISSION NEWS

On Thursday 19th June at Norwich Central Baptist Church (7 for 7.30pm) the regional BMS contact, John Smith, is coming to present a talk called "A Latin American Odyssey" to discuss work being carried out by BMS, and let people know how they can get involved. Jane has more details.

FAMILY NEWS

For anyone who may not have already heard, Anna Murray is marrying Samuel Isaacson (great name!!) on Saturday 31st May at High Bradfield (just north of Sheffield, in the Peak District) where Sam's father is the rector and will be officiating at their wedding. Bethan will be a bridesmaid, I will be a mother-in-law, Karl will be filming and Andrew is making a speech!!! (So pray!!)

Please pray that God will greatly bless their marriage and for safe journeys for all attending the wedding. (Dry and still weather would also be a bonus!!). Thanks, Maggie.

Adam was walking outside the Garden of Eden with Cain and Abel when the boys were young. Cain and Abel looked into the garden and viewed waterfalls, lovely birds, lush forests and fruit trees bending over because of the large amounts of fruit on them.

Then they took a long look at where they lived. It was dry and dusty with weeds and sickly-looking trees.

"Daddy? Why don't we live in there instead of out here?" they asked innocently. Adam said, "Well sons, Eve and I use to live in there at one time ... but your mother ate us out of house and home!"
