

Welcome to our Service today.

Matt Fromm is speaking about his planned visit to China.

The service will include communion.

Please join us for refreshments after today's service.

There will be an evening service at 6.30 pm.
This will be a 'cafe style' event to which we can invite any friends, family or neighbours.
There will be a discussion on what God thinks of war.

Little Acorns resumes after the half term break on Monday

News of the church family

Some of our young people have more exams this week, we wish them well.

Joan Cooper has been feeling unwell this week.

Tomorrow Pam and Peter Pike will be moving to their new home at Blofield Heath. It has been good to have them worshipping with us over recent weeks and we wish them well.

There's not much news for this section this week, don't forget to let Christine have any details you'd like included.

This week at Wymondham Baptist Church:

- Monday: 10.00am Little Acorns.
- Tuesday: 7.30pm Deacons' meeting at 8 Thomas Beevor Close, Wymondham.
- Wednesday: 7.30 pm Home group at 3 Westwood Gardens, Wymondham.
- Thursday: 7pm Pabulum Cafe AGM
7pm URC, Fairland Street. (We are supporting this work as a church so it would be good if some people could attend. Please speak to Rita Harris or Christine for more details)
- Friday 10.30am Lounge group at church.
- Sunday: 10:30am Sunday Services

Advance Notice.

On Wednesday June 16th there will be a special Church meeting to decide the details for the leadership structure and the action groups. This is very important as it will shape the structure of our church for years to come. We have to rewrite our constitution and need to make it what God wants it to be so that we can fulfil His purposes in the coming days. Please make the meeting a priority.

Please pray for:

Monday: Little Acorns

Tuesday: The deacons' meeting

Wednesday: Jack and Joan Cooper

Thursday: Eve and Matt Cooper and family

Friday: Mags and Paco Davila and family

Saturday: ABC Ministries in South Africa

Sunday: Alan and Janice and our worship today
