News of the church family

We offer our sympathy to Chris and Ann Flaxman on the death of Chris's brother.

We offer our sympathy to Penelope White on the death of her brother.

Jack Cooper has been in hospital for surgery on a strangulated hernia and now needs to rest. Joan will be without his visits for a while.

Janice has a very bad cold and is under the weather

We are thankful that Tammy Hannant and Frances Sullivan are now well on the road to recovery.

The Methodist Church is hosting a meeting for a charity trying to help teenagers who have cancer. Tuesday 11th May, 2.30pm, Frank Bunn Room, Town Green Centre, behind the Methodist Church. Helen Bearfield-Smith of the 'Teenage Cancer Trust' will be talking about raising funds for a new ward at Addenbrooke's Hospital, Cambridge. This is to meet the needs of those cancer sufferers who are no longer children but not really adults either.
