News of the church family:

Joan Cooper is still improving and has been out.

Rita Wing was reassured at a visit to hospital that there is no major problem following her surgery.

Paul and Trisha Harvey move on July 3rd. This week they are having a well deserved break. Help is needed to clear their garden before they move. If anyone can offer help, please speak to Alan today.

Thanks to all who prayed for Ruth Spencer during the voyage across the Atlantic. She is grateful and is now in West Africa.

Today is Fathers' Day. Thank-you to all who have any fathering role.

Advance notice. We had originally planned to have a bring and share lunch next Sunday (27th) but this will now be on the following Sunday (July 4th). Feel free to invite any friends or family to join us for this, whether or not they come to church.

On Monday 41 children joined us at Little Acorns and made 'best dad' rosettes for Father's Day. They had great fun sticking and gluing, and then wearing the rosettes themselves! We had lots of tiny 'best dads' of fewer than three feet tall walking around the hall!

Tomorrow we begin a big project to get many of the children contributing to a big banner about the story of Noah's Ark, as part of the 'Our favourite story' theme for our upcoming excursion to Gressenhall Farm. We will also be exploring water play on the other side of the lounge!

We are looking for someone to prepare 50 balloons on ribbons for our party, which is the last part of July. If you think you've got the lungs and the fingers to make lots of tiny kids and their grown-ups happy, please see one of the regular Acorns team.

Many of us receive this newsletter by weekly email. Please see Rob Chambers if you would like to add your name to our list or drop an email to office@wymondhambaptist.org
