Little Acorns

On Monday all the Little Acorns families had a rest and played amongst themselves, and with big brothers and sisters who usually are at school. A change in the diary gives us an opportunity to communicate with the families outside of the four walls of our playgroup, and it's always enlightening to hear back from the mums and dads from within their own homes - just a quick snippet of conversation provides a great insight into where they are and what we do.

We'll soon begin doing Easter crafts. Along with Christmas, this is one of the few opportunities we have during the year to merge the secular calendar with our faith-based reason for running the group, which is to demonstrate God's love for us and for families. We have in the past prayed over every element of our preparations, even down to individual crafts, and at Easter it is even more important an opportunity for us to get that message across, even in tiny ways God's

Prayer Diary

Feb 21st

- Mon: Little Acorns and those that help each week. That the Lord gives inspiration for the craft area, as well as the children's play.
- Tue: Alan & Janice—For the Lord's blessing on them and anointing for His word brought each week on Ephesians.
- Wed: Rob & Gill Price—For the Lord's wisdom and sensitivity as they serve WBC.
- Thu: Rita & Tony Harris—For the Lord's blessing on them.
- Fri: Jane & David Poyntz—as Jane continues her counselling training with Gail. Pray also for Gail as she too studies for the same course.
- Sat: Pray for visitors that come to WBC tomorrow, that the Lord blesses them and draws them closer to Him.
- Sun: Tracy Kenny & family—that the Lord give her strength, wisdom and inspiration as she juggles family life.
